Cornerstone Reporting and Business Analytics

Data Consolidation and Reporting

Consolidation of your travel data can be daunting. Reporting on that data can be impossible if it's not uniformly and centrally stored.

Reporting needs to be specific to your business needs. Data and metrics need to be easy to drill into.

Most importantly, you need to trust your data and have it all available in one place.

Otherwise, how can you know the state of your business?

The iBank Reporting Platform allows you to view, compare, and analyze your data all in one easy to use workspace.

How Do We Solve This?

By capturing, consolidating, and storing travel information in your own reporting data warehouse, you can manage travel budgets and gain visibility and control over travel policy, supplier contracts, and business results.

Reporting Your Way

Almost one hundred different standard reports and unlimited custom reports available on demand or scheduled to be broadcasted at pre-defined intervals to anyone you select.

Data Consolidation Done Right

Our data consolidation gives you the best version of your data in one place in a format you can use.

Single Source of Truth

Create a single source of truth for all of your travel data, all standardized and accessible across your entire company.

iBank's Three Major Components
