TicketTRAK™

Get More Value Back On Unused Tickets

Unused Business Travel Tickets?

Get More Value Back

Businesses lose 5-10% of their total air travel spend to unused tickets.

Since 2020, travel disruptions have led to an unprecedented volume of cancellations.

80% of unused tickets can be recovered through proper management.

HOWEVER! Attempting to track tickets without the right technology is a huge task.

A client who spends $5 million annually on air travel could be leaving $500,000 of unused tickets on the table.

The Solution

TicketTRAK is designed to fit into your current agency workflow and operates in the background.

Automated loading, tracking, and monitoring of ticket status both pre and post-travel up to the time of expiration. TicketTRAK even keeps airline databases up to date so you don't have to.

Get a view of ticket status across multiple GDS sources.

Automate reporting to go out to your internal teams and customers.

Some of our favorite features include:

Point of sales alerts to exchange unused tickets before they expire

Credits used immediately— starting the day after cancellation

Load specialty ticket types such as MCOs and non-BSP/ARC transactions

Robust business intelligence visualizations & reporting

Break out taxes and fees for easier recovery of value added tax (VAT)

TicketTRAK:

- Keeps ticket databases updated as the airlines change and expand their expiration dates.

- Starts monitoring as soon as the ticket is issued.

- Competitive systems don't start monitoring until after the last segment is supposed to be flown.

Reclaim more tickets – Period!
